On October 9, 1987 Richard S. Wallace was inaugurated as Augusta College's seventh president. Wallace replaced Dr. George A. Christenberry who served as A.C.'s president since 1970.

Chancellor H. Dean Propst was present to invest Wallace with his duties as president. Mayor Charles A. DeVaney was also on hand to present President Wallace with a Key to the City. Additional well-wishers included Georgia State University Noah Langsdale, Speaker Pro Tempore A.J. Connell and Regent chairman Jackie Ward.

Following the inauguration, there was a luncheon at the Sacred Heart Cultural Center.

Wallace Honored With Pre-inaugural Activities

The day started out with the inaugural tree planting ceremony during which former A.C. student body president, James D. Walker, Jr. addressed faculty and students. Walker, presently an Augusta lawyer, dedicated a seedling in the new Richard S. Wallace President's Club Garden next to the Fine Arts Building.

Later that day, the carillon was unveiled as it was officially dedicated by Charles Freeman. The carillon chimes the hour and can also play classical and contemporaty selections.

The day was rounded off with the annual Alumni Barbeque and a musical salute. Food was provided by Sconyers Barbecue. The Augusta Choral Society performed "An Inauguration Song" with music composed by Eloy Fominaya and lyrics by Charles Willig, both Augusta Collee faculty. The Augusta Symphony Wind Quarted, Augusta Ballet and the Fort Gordon Brass Choir were also on hand to add to the evening's entertainment.

Activities

Back To School Party

Student Union started out the year's entertainment with the Back To School Party. Clubs and organizations were encouraged to show their colors while dancing to music and watching videos on a big screen monitor.

ROTC Survival Training

Basic Course cadets spent an interesting quarter learning the fundamentals of surviving. They were taught how to rappell, build a shelter, build rope bridges, make a fire, find water, and even how to catch their own food. To top the quarter off, they went on a weekend "survival" trip to test their skills. Everyone made it back in one piece, obviously surviving their trip to the wilderness.

The Halloween Party brought the goblins out in packs. Top Secret provided the entertainment that evening.

Intermural Sports

What do you do to release tension from the pressures of school? Read a book. Watch television. How about exercise? Intermural sports at Augusta College are a great way to unwind and keep yourself fit.

Outside of intermural football pictured on these pages, intermural basketball, softball and volleyball are offered. Many students enter teams in all of the intermural team sports and build great rivalries which make the games more exciting.

Jags Improve Skills

The Jaguar booters showed much improvement in their level of play despite their record of 2-13-1. The squad was competitive in the soccer-rich Big South with six games decided by two goals or less. The team scoring was led by Tommy Jackson, who was named to the second team all — Big South, after scoring 14 goals and one assist during the season. The squad MVP honors for the third year went to a freshman, Lance Cunningham. Other top players on the team were Cam Ball, Doug Starzec, Dennis McBride, and Kevin Vaughn. The team was coached by Lowell Barnhart.

Best Season Ever!

The Lady Jaguar spikers had their best season since the team began in 1985 by going 11-12 on the year. The Team, which was 5-16 the previous season, showed great improvement behind the direction of Joanne Rowe and assistant, Tom Chadwick. The team had impressive wins over Georgia Southern, Paine, USC-Aiken and Mercer. The team MVP was senior Maggi Brown, who had 114 kills and 32 service aces. Squad leaders were Fran Leverette in kills (138), Mary Chavous in assists (125), and Peggy Stoming in service aces (37). Other top players were Sheri Morgan, Caroline Platte, Debbie Born, Tracy Whisnant, Rhonda Johnson, Carolyn Meleo, and Janet Walden.

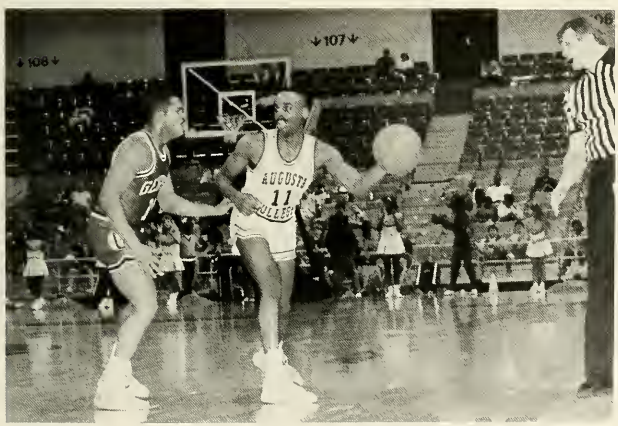
The End Of An Era

The 1987-88 season signaled the end of an era at Augusta College with the resignation of long-time athletic director, Marvin Vanover, followed at the season end with the stepping aside of second year head basketball coach, Neal Cody. Neal Cody, who initially joined Marvin Vanover at the program's inception in 1963, returned to assist AC's transition into Division I in 1984. During that time the Augusta College program had progressed from a junior college then through NAIA, NCAA II, and finally to NCAA Division I status in 1983. From the work that was done the groundwork for future success has been laid for Augusta College athletics.



The Jaguars definitely surprised some people in 1987-88, by compiling a competitive 8-18 record, with six games lost toward the close of the season by a total of 16 points. The Jags played a most ambitious schedule at the start of the year taking on Georgia, Georgia Tech, Clemson, Mercer and Georgia Southern before Christmas break. The Jags slid to 1-9 before rallying to three consecutive wins over East Tennessee, Winthrop and Radford. AC's Big South wins over Campbell, Radford and two wins over eventual conference champions, Winthrop, gave Augusta a sixth place finish in the league. A season-making win very narrowly escaped AC late in the year when the Jags led Georgia Southern in Statesboro by seven points with two minutes to play. Tough breaks, a some fortune for the Eagles turned the upset, of the 20-game winner, into another tough loss for Augusta. In the last regular season contest before the tournament, the Jags spoiled Winthrop's homecoming, which would match them with Radford. Augusta lost to the highlanders in the opening round of the Big South tourney by an 82-96 score.

Two Augusta players named to the all-Big South team were Tim Daniels and Vincent Jackson. Daniels, a sophomore, led the team in scoring (16.0) and rebounding (7.8). Jackson scored 13.8 points a game, which included a total of 32 points against Georgia, which was the most any individual had tallied against the Bulldogs all season. Senior Tyrone Gross ended his career at the top of the list in steals and assists, as well as compiling 825 points to list 19th all-time. Rounding out the starting line-up was John Walker and Brad Mays. Other top players were Eric Etchison, David Butler and Steve Platts. The team was coached by Neal Cody and assisted by Larry Wall.

Lady Jags Finish Third In Big South

The Lady Jaguar basketball team battled to a 10-14 overall record and a 5-8 conference record to rank third in the Big South. Some memorable wins were over SC State (79-69), Mercer (66-53), USC Aiken (80-41) and Furman (51-48). The team was led by all-Big South, Kim Turner, who poured in 15 points a game. Another Senior, Patrice Ross, was second on the team in scoring with 13 points and 5.6 rebounds an outing. Ross tallied 989 career points to rank fourth on the all-time list. Rounding out the starting line-up was senior guard, Stephanie Maddock, joined by Mary Chavous and Francean Leverette. The top newcomer to the AC women's team was Debbie Born, who as a freshman scored 8.9 points and grabbed 6.4 rebounds. The team was coached by second-year mentor, Lowell Barnhart. He was assisted by Joanne Rowe, Gina Arp and Lisa White.

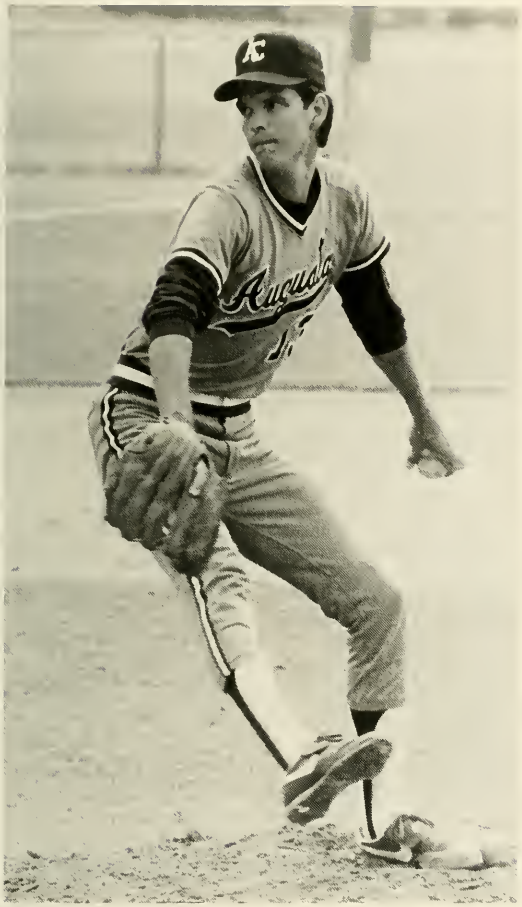
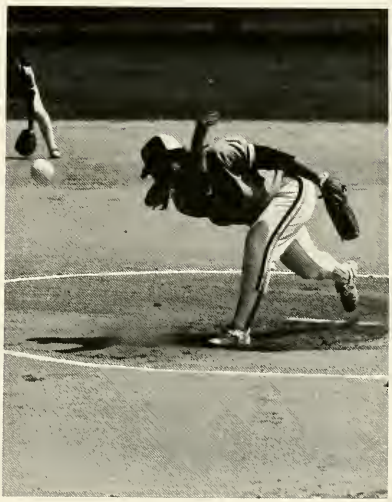
AC Beats ACC Champs, Georgia Tech!

Playing perhaps the school's toughest schedule, the Jaguar baseball team finished 1988 with a 16-27 record. Key injuries to three starters early in the season kept the Jags off pace, but the team was still able to make a run at a possible Big South play-off berth, with an 8-10 conference record. The high point of the season was a 7-6 win over eventual ACC champion, Georgia Tech. It was the second consecutive time the Jags had beaten the Yellow Jackets at Jaguar Field. The top player on the team was sophomore MVP, Lee Sammons, who hit .418 on the season. His batting average led the conference and was ranked 25th nationally among Division I schools. The other AC player to earn all-Big South honors was Barry Luke, who hit .319. Some other top players for Coach Skip Fite were Jack Wilcher, David England, Collin Cassedy, Ken Thomason, Dan Kosobucki, John Mabery, Steve Duckworth, and Brad Adams.



Softball

What a year for the Diamond Lady Jaguars! Lowell Barnhart's crew totaled a 23-15 record, with big wins over UNC Wilmington, Winthrop, Mercer and Georgia Southern. The surprise of the season came at the Big South tournament, where the Lady Jaguars knocked off the #1 ranked Winthrop Eagles by a score of 5-3. At the season's end the Lady Jaguars found themselves listed second in the nation in scoring (7.6) runs and fourth in hitting (.317). Mickie Paul was listed #1 in the country for triples with 11 (0.29). Other nationally ranked players were Lisa White in batting (27th, .393), and Kim Turner in runs batted in (4th, 1.06). Making the all-conference team were seniors Lisa White and Janet Walden. The AC players named to the all-tournament team were Mary Chavous, the team MVP, and Debbie Born. Other top players were Angie Newman, Sheri Morgan, Gina Arp, Angela Smith and Peggy Stoming.



AC Has Best Season Ever

Coach Ernie Lanford and his Jaguar golfers had their best overall season by winning five tournaments, three runner-up finishes, along with a third place in a total of 13 tournaments. The AC golfers defended their titles at the AC/Forest Hills Inv. and the Zip Inv. (Akron, OH). They added other team wins at the Florida Citrus Gator Bowl, Pacer Inv. and the Ac/Forest Hills Spring Tournament. One title that eluded the two-time conference champs was a repeat crown at the Big South Championships. The Jags placed second behind Coastal Carolina, with the individual medalist honors going to junior, Roger Rowland. Rowland placed on the all-conference team, with teammate Jim Gilleon. Some of the other top AC golfers were Scottish golfer, Alasdair Watt, Steve Foote and Matt Mankin.

Men's Tennis

The men's tennis team finished with an 0-17 record and a 7th place finish in the Big South Tournament. The top player on the team at #1 singles was Ronnie Wilcauskas, the squad MVP. In the Big South tournament Steve Platte won a match to place sixth, the best of any AC player. Other team members included: Mark Moody, Eric Snell, Brad Rollins, Brian Casey and James Bible. The team was coached by Richard Harrison and assisted by Melissa Kirby.

Women's Tennis

The Lady Jaguar netters, coached by Joanne Rowe, earned a season mark of 8-8 overall and 3-4 in the Big South. The team made a solid showing at the Big South tennis tournament held at Augusta's Newman Tennis Center, with a 5th place finish. At the tourney in singles, #4 Nanci Erbland and #5 Angie Heilig, both placed third. In doubles, #2 Nanci Erbland and Maria Loo, also finished third. The top individual records belongs to Erbland (9-3), Maria Loo (12-0) and Angie Heilig (11-6). The team MVP was Carol Zembiak. Other top players were Patrice Oglesby, Beth Butts, Leslie Cobb and Mary Holley.

Record-Breaking Season

The Lady Aqua Jags swam, dove, and paddled to a 4-4 record, their best mark since the program began in 1985. Virtually all of the Lady Jaguar records came tumbling down led by the experience of three-time MVP, Suzanne Johnson. Several records in sprint freestyle and backstroke were rewritten by freshman, Beth Hamerick, with new marks in butterfly, and distance freestyle went to sophomore, Robyn Addie. Other contributing swimmers and divers on the squad were Angel Heilig, Kelsey Kemple, Mickey Paul, Beth Butts, Cathy Linatoc, Victoria Chan, Coy Stewart, and Laurie Holliday. The squad was directed by Coach Richard Harrison and assistant, Brent Mikel.

Men's And Women's Cross Country

The Augusta College Harriers, coached by Larry Wall, competed in five invitational meets during the 1987 season. The team was paced by squad MVP Ron Salentine, along with other top runners, Dennis McBride, Eric Etchison, Chris Everly, Steve Platte, and Tim McKeown. The Jaguars finished 7th in the Big South Championships led by Dennis McBride, who covered the five mile course in 30:10 to place 32nd overall.

Angela Heilig paced the Lady Jaguars with a 10th place finish in the Big South Championship in a time of 20:26 over the 3.1 mile course. Heilig, a junior, was selected MVP for the third consecutive year. The AC runners placed third at both the Georgia Southern Inv. and West Georgia Inv. The squad, coached by Denny Burau, was weakened by an injury were Doreen Moores, Debbie Osterhoudt, Mickie Paul, Debra Watts and Lisa White.
